Embark on a transformative adventure with “Relax, Renew, Realign,” a new Cornerstone travel series designed to rejuvenate your body, mind, and spirit. Led by Cristina and Kellie of Cornerstone Journeys, these curated trips take you to serene destinations that promote relaxation, friendships, and holistic renewal. Starting in October, the first journey will whisk you away to the tranquil landscapes of Santa Fe, New Mexico, where you can immerse yourself in the local culture, wellness practices, and breathtaking natural beauty. Future destinations include the sun-soaked shores of Key West, Florida, and the mystical red rocks of Sedona, Arizona, in 2025. Each journey is thoughtfully planned to balance relaxation with enriching local experiences and enjoyment ensuring you return home feeling revitalized and realigned.

Groups are limited to only 15 guests, so book early!

El Rey Court - an historic Oasis in Santa Fe

Just down Cerrillos Road - that is, old Route 66 - lies El Rey Court, an iconic adobe roadside motor court. First built in 1936, this inspiring 86-room adobe inn has been renovated + reimaged into a modern travelers oasis, while retaining the original spirit of adventure + discovery from its early days. Set on five acres of sprawling old-growth gardens, El Rey is a laid back come-as-you-are type of place where everyone is a friend. Accommodations not only a comfortable bed to rest your nomadic head, but some inspiring new design details, noteworthy modern amenities, a beautiful onsite bar, heated Swimming Pool, Hot tub, multiple green spaces for relaxing, curated + original art throughout the hotel grounds. El Rey Court is a perfect home-base for our perfectly different type of Santa Fe experience.
